

Testing Code of Ethics and Security Procedures

Test Proctor 2019-2020

It is important for you, as a proctor of a TCAP assessment, to know that the following guidelines are to be strictly followed. A lack of or refusal to follow this guidance may result in an investigation, loss of teaching licensure, and/or prosecution for violation of the law. Please read the following list of responsibilities and sign your name on the signature line at the bottom of this form indicating that you understand these actions and their consequences.

The activities and actions listed below are required as a part of my role as a test proctor for TCAP assessments. These requirements apply to all TCAP assessments:

- TCAP End-Of-Course
- TCAP Grades 3-8
- ACCESS for ELLs
- MSAA
- TCAP-Alt (Science/Social Studies)
- Grade 2 optional assessment/Grade 2 Alt
- Field tests
- ACT and SAT

I understand that before testing on the days of the assessment, I am responsible for:

- Reviewing the Test Administration Manual (TAM) for the assessment, including all information on test security procedures and policies
- Reviewing any documentation provided to me by my building testing coordinator
- Assisting test administrator in securing test materials and maintaining my presence with them once checked out from the designated secure location in my building
 - Only test administrators can check out and deliver test materials to/from the testing environment
- Keeping all test material on the school's campus (unless authorized to do so for off-site testing),
- Maintaining the integrity and security of the assessment by not reading, sharing, paraphrasing or reproducing any of the test booklet/answer sheet content. Reproduction includes (but is not limited to):
 - Handwritten notes
 - Photocopy
 - Photographs

I understand that during testing (including during breaks) on the day(s) of assessment, I am responsible for:

- Monitoring the room
- Assist the test administrator as needed
- Maintaining the validity and security of the assessment by not:
 - Reading test items as I monitor the room
 - Reading student responses or materials (e.g., test books, answer documents, computer screens) as I monitor the room
 - Assisting students in answering test items
 - Giving students verbal cues ("you may want to re-check number 7") or non-verbal cues (pointing at a specific item)
 - Encouraging students to finish early
 - Allowing students to use cell phones or other electronic devices, even if they have already submitted their tests, until all testing is complete*
 - Allowing students to talk or cause disturbances
 - Coaching students during testing on test-taking strategies
 - Proctoring the assessment to family members
- Providing a testing environment that is comfortable to all students while still adhering to the expectations of state testing, which includes:
 - Eliminating the use of any/all technical devices (computer/tablet/cell phone/smart watch) for any reason*
 - Eliminating daily tasks like checking email, grading papers, or other activities that will result in my attention not being on students at all times
